

Audition Guidelines for Wagner College Theatre Fall 2010 Prospective Freshmen

Students will be invited to interview and/or audition only if they meet Wagner College Admissions eligibility standards. Potential students should address all preliminary inquiries to the Admissions Office at 718-390-3411.

Theatre Performance

WHEN: This year's audition day will be held on Sunday, February 28, 2010. Invitations containing specific check-in times will be sent to all invited students in January, depending on the results of your application to the college.

WHERE: Check-in will be in Main Hall rooms 6 and 7 on the Wagner College campus.

PLEASE PREPARE

-Two monologues of approximately one minute in length. Show your best work, regardless of genre or period. You may be asked for only one, so plan on performing the piece that demonstrates your best work.

-Two Broadway musical selections of 16 bars in length, one from an up-tempo song and the other from a ballad. You may be asked for only one, so plan on performing the piece that demonstrates your best work.

-Each applicant will be required to attend a Dance/Movement evaluation designed to evaluate potential. Nothing need be prepared, but appropriate dance attire is required.

If unable to attend Audition Day on February 28, please submit, to the Wagner College Admissions Office, a DVD or VHS videotape including:

- one 16 bar musical selection
- one monologue of approximately one minute in length
- a few words on why you are interested in pursuing your education at Wagner College
- a demonstration of your movement or dance abilities

Please include, with the video recording, a letter that contains a contact phone number and Email. Full video submission guidelines are also available at the Wagner College Theatre website or by contacting Professor David McDonald at dmcdonal@wagner.edu.
