

CURRICULUM SUMMARY:
Minor in Educational Studies

The intent of the Minor in Educational Studies is to prepare students wishing to teach at the Childhood level (grades 1-6) or Adolescent level (grades 7-12). Wagner students with the minor in Educational Studies, major in either English, Spanish, biology, chemistry, physics, mathematics, history, sociology, or political science, and the requisite GPA are eligible to complete the 33 credit MSED in Educational Pedagogy. On completion of the MSED program, students can be recommended for a New York State Childhood 1-6 or 7-12 Certification in a content area.

In addition, the minor provides a focus for students who have an interest in Education but do not wish to teach.

A total of 6 Units required taken in the following order:

	Date:
EDUC 210: Foundations and Principles of Education, Classrooms, and Teaching (30 hours of field work)	_____
EDUC 326: Teaching and Learning in an Inclusive Setting (30 hours of field work)	_____

The following courses are taken as a blocks:

Block 1

EDUC 414: Methods & Curriculum Development for Inclusive Middle Childhood Education Grades 4-8 (20 hours of field work)	_____
CS 322: Database Programming and Connectivity	_____

Block 2      CHILDHOOD 1-6 LEVEL

EDUC 425: Advanced Skills in Language Acquisition & Literacy Development (30 hours of field work in conjunction with ED 426)	_____
EDUC 426: Skills in Language Acquisition and Literacy Development for Linguistically and Culturally Diverse Students	_____

Or

ADOLESCENT 7-12 LEVEL

EDUC 559 The Secondary Classroom in an Inclusive Setting (30 hours of field work in conjunction with ED 562)	_____
EDUC 562 Content Area Reading and Writing	_____

In addition it is highly recommended that students who do intend on pursuing a New York State Certification in Childhood (1-6) or Adolescent Education (7-12) complete 2 sequential units of a language other than English during their undergraduate program.